Better Comprehension Of National Needs Under Way, States Roosevelt

In Congressional Election Speech Says the Administration Begins War on Individual Selfishness To Save Resources.

UNITED NATION

"East Has Stake in the West, and West Has Stake in the East," Says President.

En Route with President Roosevelt to Washington, August 6 (P).—President Roosevelt travelled on to new western developments today with a declaration that his administration is just beginning a war on individual selfishness "to save our resources of agriculture and industry."

This statement of battle in a Congressional election year was laid down last night from a tourist cottage on Two Medicine Lake high up in Glacier National Park.

Today Mr. Roosevelt rode his special train to Glasgow, Mont., where he motors to inspect another dam—Fort Peck—on the upper Missouri. The project will harness this stream against floods and provide eventually power and navigation for the region.

Reviewing Efforts.

President Roosevelt is closely reviewing the efforts of the government to make the Columbia and Missouri rivers of the northwest provide places for families of the congested areas elsewhere.

"I believe," said the President, in a radio address, "we are building a better comprehension of our national needs."

"People understand, as never before, the splendid public purpose that underlies the development of great power sites, the improving of navigation, the prevention of flood and of the erosion of our agricultural fields, the prevention of forest fires, the diversification of farming and the distribution of industry."

Nation As A Whole

"We know more and more, that the east has a stake in the west and the west has a stake in the east, that the nation must and shall be considered as a whole and not as an aggregation of disjointed groups."

Upon reaching the Two Medicine Lake retreat last night with Mrs. Roosevelt, Senator Wheeler, of Montana, and Secretary Wheeler, administrator of the two billion dollar public works program, the President formally adopted by the Blackfeet Indians, "Lone Chief" as the title given the President, a name of one of the tribe's greatest chieftains.

Mrs. Roosevelt was referred to constantly by the Indians as the "Grand White Mother" and she was given the tribal name of "Medicine Pipe Woman."

HARBOR POLICE LOOKING FOR PIRATES ALONG THE SOUND

New Rochelle, N. Y., Aug. 6 (P).—Harbor police here and along the sound to Stamford today are looking for pirates!

Arthur H. Abell, of the New Rochelle Rowing Club, reported when he docked last night that several men in a power boat stole a dingy with an outboard motor which broke loose from his 40-foot sloop "Blue."

Off Stamford yesterday afternoon, Abell said, the dingy broke away and before he could turn the Tiger about a "large black sailboat" with an auxiliary motor approached and took the dingy in tow. Abell gave chase but was outdistanced by the sailboat.

LONG-VALMSEY STICK BY GUNS IN POLITICAL WAR.

New Orleans, August 6 (P).—The "armies" of Senator Huey P. Long and Mayor T. Semmes Walmsley stuck to their guns today in the bloodless "battle of New Orleans." Mayor Walmsley, who is politically "out" with "Kingfish" Long, said he would keep the city hall strongly guarded by policemen and machine guns just as long as the Senator and Governor O. K. Allen retain possession of the voters' registration office building with the state militia. Senator Long accepted service of an injunction order and was instructed to appear tomorrow morning in civil district court to show cause why the troops should not be disbanded.

DELAWARE "SILVER SHIRTS" ARE ACTIVE IN SAN DIEGO

Los Angeles, Aug. 6 (P).—Despite denial by San Diego peace officers that the "Silver Shirt" Legion is active there, Rep. Charles Kramer said today that "our information is that armed bodies of men wearing the silver shirt insignia have been conducting weekly target practice and military drills at a spot near San Diego."

Kramer, of California, chairman of the congressional sub-committee investigating un-American activities, added that "the information given to the committee came from one of our own investigators who for the past several weeks has been engaged in drilling silver shirts in the San Diego area."

Democratic Supervisors Are Raked Severely By Elsworth

Minority Leader Charges Democratic Supervisors Are "Trained Seals," in Address to Republican County Convention—Lasher Chosen Coroner—Goodwin, Wicks, Conway and Boice Candidates.

Democrats Will Select Candidates

County Convention Convened Wednesday Morning in Kingston Municipal Auditorium—Democrats Busy Lining Up a Ticket to Present to Delegates.

It is understood that the Democratic candidates for Congress and State Senator from this district will not be Ulster county men this year. The Democrats of Ulster county will hold their convention in the Kingston Auditorium to make up the slate for the fall primaries.

There seems to be no question but that Arthur Rice will again be the Democratic candidate to succeed himself as county treasurer, and it is said that Michael Galletta of Glasco, who made an unsuccessful run for coroner last year, is again anxious to be a candidate for coroner this year.

Those who are close to the Democratic leaders of the county state that some difficulty is being experienced in securing a candidate for Member of Assembly.

The Democratic county convention will convene at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Plot to Dynamite Hospital Laid to Gang

Washington, Aug. 6 (P).—A plot to blow up the Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, hospital to kill a woman patient was attributed today to the "Tri-state Gang" recently smashed by police.

Police said the conspiracy was thwarted just in time by moving the patient, Mrs. Elizabeth Fontaine, under heavy guard. Frank S. W. Burke, chief of detectives, described her as a gunman's sweetheart who gave police information about the identity of the gang's members.

A stool pigeon informed the police that revengeful gangsters planned to dynamite the hospital, possible killing many patients. Mrs. Fontaine had been taken to the hospital after being wounded at Upper Darby.

Waterpower Figures As Chief Senate Topic

Washington, Aug. 6 (P).—Waterpower and not ships is expected to be stressed in the administration's efforts to get the St. Lawrence treaty ratified by the next senate.

Those who followed the unsuccessful strategy of President Roosevelt's Senate forces in the treaty fight last session foresee this shift in emphasis. There are two reasons, they say:

The argument that sank the Canadian-American treaty last session revolved largely around shipping.

The plea for ratification on the ground that, in addition to the seaway the project would mean more and cheaper power for the public transcends, in the opinion of pro-treaty men, the regional opposition that previously defeated ratification.

The President served warning, when the Senate tossed out the treaty by a 42 to 46 vote, that he would press for approval next session. Last week, speaking on the site of one of the great power projects of the nation, the Columbia river locale, he said flatly: "The St. Lawrence is going to be started."

Violinist's Widow Faces Potter's Grave

New York, Aug. 6 (P).—Death on a charity bed in Harlem Hospital has ended the tragic fortunes of Mrs. Katherine Gordon, widow of Prince Rigo, the famous Gypsy violinist.

She died yesterday from a complication of diseases, pneumonia and alone. She was admitted to the hospital recently as a charity patient. She was 55.

Born Katherine Hadley, daughter of J. E. Hadley, a Yale professor, she married "Prince" Rigo in 1910. The "Prince" who played his violin in European courts, died here in 1927.

Subsequently, "Princess" Rigo married the former Lieut. Governor Edward Gordon of Florida. He died two years ago, leaving her a tax-burdened estate.

After Gordon's death, the "Princess" lived in a small flat. She was taken to Harlem Hospital after she had collapsed on the street from hunger.

Governor Displeased Bus Operators Appeal With Progress Made So To Legislature To Give Far By The Legislature Commission Powers

Lehman Working Behind the Scenes To Speed Up Action on Major Questions He Has Presented.

NO BILLS

Not a Single Measure Has Yet Gone to Governor's Desk for His Approval.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 6 (P).—Displeased with the progress of the legislature during the past four weeks, Governor Lehman is working behind the scenes to speed up action on the major questions which he has presented for consideration.

He is also trying to get the lawmakers to act quickly on the score of non-controversial bills before them so that they will not be left to die in the event the session ends suddenly.

It is understood that the governor has called upon the Democratic leaders to put their committees to work on these measures and report them out at once for action this week. Several of the committees were expected to meet today to clean up their bills.

Although the extraordinary session is now entering its fifth week, not a single bill has gone to the governor's desk. The only measure approved by both houses so far is the Fearon county government amendment, which is in the form of a concurrent resolution and does not require executive approval.

The legislators were called back to Albany earlier than usual this week by two public hearings today—one on motor bus legislation and the other on bills for the relief of guaranteed mortgage certificate holders.

The first was scheduled to start at 11 a. m. (eastern standard time) and the mortgage hearing an hour later.

The committees which have these questions under consideration are expected to meet immediately after the hearings and act on the bills before them.

The two houses remained stalemated on the proposed $13,346,000 appropriation for state aid to schools and the $1,500,000 for bovine tuberculosis eradication. The Democratic senate has passed its own measures on these questions and the Republican-controlled assembly has passed bills which differ in a few details.

Unless one house is willing to substitute the measures sent over by the other house, both proposals face defeat.

WALES DISCLAIMS HEROISM IN RESCUE OF SMALL BOY

Biarritz, France, Aug. 5 (P).—The Prince of Wales refused today to play a hero's role for aiding in the rescue of a lad from drowning yesterday.

The small boy was caught by a huge wave which lifted him from the beach into a swimming pool. The prince was one of those who plunged to the aid of the choking lad and pulled him to safety.

Prince Edward pointed out that he was only one of a number surrounding the pool at the time. Shortly after the incident, the prince returned to his villa.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, Aug. 6.—The position of the treasury August 3 was: Receipts, $29,424,851.59; expenditures, $20,481,087.32; balance, $9,943,764.27; customs receipts for the month, $1,839,954.95. Receipts for the fiscal year since July 1, $268,028,319.97; expenditures, $277,843,317.63 (including $257,428,603.11 of emergency expenditures); excess of expenditures, $8,814,998.66; gold assets, $7,945,103,644.34.

Peruvian Plane Missing

Lima, Peru, Aug. 6 (P).—Officials revealed today that an army plane carrying a military pilot and three passengers has been missing since August 1 on a flight between San Ramon and Macassa. The three passengers were two priests of Indian missions and a German.

Tiffin, O., Aug. 6 (P).—Milo Burcham, 31-year-old Los Angeles stunt flier, made a successful landing here today after the propeller dropped off his biplane while he was flying at a height of 1,000 feet over this city.

Spokesmen Suggest Public Service Commission Could Regulate Insurance Needed on Buses in Each Case.

THREE SURRENDER

Three Owners of Ossining Death Bus Surrender to Manslaughter Indictments.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 6 (P).—Led by Alfred T. Davidson, representing the Third Avenue Railway System in New York city, spokesmen for bus operators appealed to the legislature today to leave the decision of how much passenger insurance they must carry up to the Public Service Commission.

"The commission can investigate each case and determine how much indemnity is necessary," Davidson said.

He opposed various bills introduced as a result of the Ossining bus tragedy requiring insurance up to $5,000 for each passenger plus $75,000 on the passenger group in each large bus.

Davidson did not oppose Governor Lehman's suggestion for strict state inspection of motor bus brakes and other equipment.

Proposed Law

One of the proposed laws requires 2,500 insurance on the life of each passenger in a small bus and up to $25,000 on each passenger in large buses, Davidson said.

"Why the discrimination?" he asked the Senate public service committee holding a hearing on bus legislation. "Isn't the life of a passenger in a small bus as valuable as in a large bus?"

Opposition speakers were called before the committee first. Those favoring more strict bus requirements, were to be heard later.

One of the proposals under consideration is to limit the speed of buses and heavy trucks to 35 miles an hour. Motor Vehicle Commissioner Charles A. Hartnett told Governor Lehman he had complaints some buses run 75 miles an hour.

Three Surrender

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 6 (P).—The three owners of the bus which ran wild at Ossining three weeks ago, killing 19 persons, surrendered this afternoon to manslaughter indictments charging "gross, culpable, criminal negligence."

They are: Rudolph Pick, Long Beach, president of the Town and Country Bus Company, subsidiary of the Rialto Bus Corporation.

Charles Neidhardt, Freeport, treasurer of the company.

Neidhardt and D'Amore were arraigned at 1 o'clock and pleaded not guilty. Bail of $50,000 was asked for their release pending trial in October but fixing of the amount of the bonds was delayed pending arraignment of Pick for whom Humphrey J. Lynch appeared as counsel.

The defendants said they would not be able to furnish the high bail and probably will have to remain in the county jail.

Came From New York

The men came from New York after District Attorney Frank H. Coyne by telephone this morning informed their attorney, Max Greenberg, that the indictments had been filed in supreme court. They were joined here by Benjamin Margolis of New Rochelle, associate counsel.

After waiting an hour for Pick, Mr. Coyne led the three men before Justice William B. Bleakley to plead to the blanket indictment which charged two counts of manslaughter against each—first degree because the bus was being operated with defective brakes and without proper insurance, and second because "gross, culpable, criminal negligence" was shown in its condition.

Sentence from 10 to 20 years in prison is the penalty for conviction of first degree manslaughter and from 5 to 10 years for the lesser degree.

His Weight in Meat

Baltimore, Aug. 6 (P).—The average American will eat his weight in meat this year, according to figures presented the 49th annual convention of the National Retail Meat Dealers' Association, in session here. In beef, alone, the United States per capita consumption will be approximately 74 pounds. Pork is running a close second with consumption slightly under the average of 74 pounds last year. The total consumption should be close to 150 pounds per person.

Awaits Hearing

Ralph Lagonte, negro, who gave his address as Kingston and his age as 51, was picked up by Deputy Sheriff Vredenburg about 9 o'clock Sunday night and brought to the county jail to await a hearing before Justice Roger H. Loughran of Hurley. Lagonte was lying along the roadway, on the Hurley mountain road and is charged with public intoxication.

Committed to Jail

Harry Alexander, 34, of Newburgh, was committed to the Ulster county jail Sunday by Justice Melvin D. Schemm of Ellenville, to serve 30 days on a public intoxication charge.

Hitler Pays Solemn Tribute to the Late President Von Hindenburg

SIXTY MILES OF TORCHES FOR HINDENBURG FUNERAL

Neudeck, Germany, Aug. 6 (P).—Through a lane of flaming torches sixty miles long the body of Paul von Hindenburg will be taken tonight to his grave.

At dusk a squadron of seven airplanes, piloted by East Prussian aviators, will scatter red roses over the Neudeck estate—the late president and field marshal loved so well.

Brief memorial exercises will be held in the Manor House. Then the coffin bearing the body of Germany's hero will be placed on a gun carriage for the trip to Tannenberg, scene of one of his greatest military triumphs.

At Tannenberg, site of Germany's victory over Russia in 1914, the body will be placed in the marshal's tower of the National Memorial, a tower now known as "Von Hindenburg Tower."

Adolf Hitler, who eulogized the president in an address before the Reichstag in Berlin, will be the speaker at funeral exercises tomorrow.

To Select Governor For Federal Reserve

Washington, Aug. 6 (P).—President Roosevelt, returning to the capital this week, will face the task of choosing a new governor for the Federal Reserve Board.

Governor Eugene R. Black, who has announced his intention of returning to his old post as governor of the Atlanta Reserve Bank, is anxious to leave and awaits only the naming of a successor.

This successor, if prosperity returns, will have the job of sitting on the lid of a banking system in which excess reserves are the largest in record.

Should the depression deepen, he would be charged with guiding the reserve system's attitude toward possible support of the government bond market, with the nation's debt the highest in history and demands for heavier emergency spending inevitably tending toward new borrowing.

The reserve banks have increased their holdings of government securities nearly $400,000,000 in the past year. Reporting member banks' holdings have grown by $1,550,000,000 and it is believed the increase of other banks would add $500,000,000.

$500,000 Fire Razed Large Warehouse

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 6 (P).—Authorities began an investigation today in an effort to determine the cause of the $500,000 fire which razed a big warehouse, destroyed 400 new automobiles and burned an abandoned Great Lakes steamer to the water's edge last night.

Four men were injured in the fire which caused the greatest single loss in the city since May 6, 1931, when the 106th regiment armory was destroyed. Edward Brach, 20, Edward Maher, 20, and Lester W. Swope, 40, were overcome by smoke. Hugh W. Smith, 69, watchman, was burned on the hands and face. All are confined to hospitals.

Approximately 30 fire companies and a fire boat were summoned to fight the flames which started in the former Lehigh Valley railroad freight house, now used for storing new automobiles shipped from Michigan on lake steamers. Thomas H. Hagan, president of the Buffalo Freight Terminal and Warehouse Company, which owned the structure, said the machines had an average value of $1,000. This would place the loss in automobiles alone at $400,000.

Agricultural Prices

Increase 21 Per Cent

Chicago, Aug. 6 (P).—Market prices of the four basic American agricultural commodities, produced this year under a government sponsored program designed to benefit farmers, averaged today at Chicago 21 per cent higher than a year ago and 32 per cent higher than two years ago.

The steady and sometimes sharp improvement in domestic grain prices since May has accounted for the bulk of the percentage increases. The quotations still are far below the all-time peaks of the war and post-war era.

Prices at Chicago of wheat, corn, hay and cotton, defined as the basic commodities by the agricultural adjustment act, showed the greatest improvement over quotations for a corresponding date in 1932 recorded so far this year.

39 Days in Jail

William Mitchell, 54, negro, of Milton, was sentenced to 30 days in the Ulster county jail Sunday, following his arraignment before Justice John Rusk, Jr., on a charge of assault in the third degree.

New Leader Also Prays For Peace, Freedom And Honor of Germany

Declares The Late President Was As Innocent of the Beginning of the War As Anybody in the World.

GREAT MASSES

Hitler's Words Carried to the Masses of Humanity by a Number of Loud Speakers.

Berlin, August 6 (P).—From the rostrum where on July 13 he defended his killing of 77 "revolutionaries," and declared he was Germany's law, Adolf Hitler today paid solemn tribute to the late President Paul von Hindenburg and prayed for the peace, freedom and honor of Germany.

"Deputies of the German Reichstag, men and women of the German people!" the chancellor-leader spoke. "I implore you all now to look beyond this transitory moment into the future. Let the strong realization enter our hearts: The Herr Reich president Field Marshal General von Hindenburg is not dead."

"He is living. For in dying he wanders above us amidst the immortals of our people surrounded by the great spirits of the past as an eternal patron and protector of the German Reich and the German nation."

Hitler declared the late president was "as innocent of the beginning of the war as anybody in the world could be," pointing out that when the conflict began in 1914, von Hindenburg was living in retirement, having taken his discharge from the army at the age of 64 on March 13, 1911.

The new leader of Germany praised von Hindenburg as a military commander and declared:

"Had the political leadership of our people during this period been congenial with the military, Germany would have been spared the greatest humiliation ever to go down in history."

He said that the World War broke upon a German people "sacredly convinced of having been attacked without their guilt."

Non-Political In Character

The chancellor's address, delivered before a hushed audience in the Kroll Opera House—which still serves as the temporary Reichstag building following last year's fire—was non-political in character, although he made frequent references to the principles of his own regime in tracing von Hindenburg's career.

With his voice choked in emotion, Hitler declared: "We want to preserve the miracle of this new resurrection of our people as a precious inheritance of a great age and we want to pass it on to the generations that come after us. He who thus observed fidelity to his people shall himself ever remain unforgotten in fidelity."

His solemn oration was heard by a crowd which packed the Kroll Opera House, still the temporary home of the Parliament pending the completion of repairs to the Reichstag building.

Great Masses of Persons

Outside, a cold rain fell. The crowd paid no attention to it. Although the speech was not delivered until noon, great masses of persons swarmed about the chancellery where Hitler was putting the finishing touches on his speech during the morning. Many of those waiting were women. They formed a speaking chorus, shouting at regular intervals:

"Eins, zwei, drei, vier, fünf, sechs, zehn, wir wollen unseren Kanzler sehen!" Which means: "One, two, three, four, five, six, ten: We want to see our chancellor!"

The chancellor repeatedly responded to the women's calls by showing himself silently at a window and waving back a Nazi salute.

The opera house was swathed in black crepe and profusely varnished with evergreens inside, from the black rostrum, lined with laurel trees and white lilies, a marble bust of the dead von Hindenburg looked out upon the throng. Hitler's words were carried to the masses of humanity outside in the Reichspalais by numbers of loud speakers.

The memorial services began with the Corolian overture by the Philharmonic Orchestra. They played to a vast silence of grief, unbroken by any incidents.

Freuder Greeting Speaks

When Hitler finished his speech, Premier Herman Wilhelm Goerring of Prussia conveyed the sympathy of the nation to the immediate family of von Hindenburg in remarks addressed directly to Frau Clara von Hindenburg, the late president's son, who with his wife sat in front of the rostrum.

The slow, sweet strains of Wagner's "Götterdämmerung" then spread softly through the hall to bring the exercises to a close. The members of the cabinet filed slowly from the platform to give their personal condolences to Colonel von Hindenburg.

New York State Launches Milk Consumption Campaign

Commissioner Baldwin Tells Of Co-operative Effort To Increase Sales of Milk And Cream

By CHARLES H. BALDWIN

Commissioner, Department of Agriculture and Markets
Albany, New York

NEW YORK STATE has launched a great health and recovery campaign to promote consumption of fluid milk and cream, something for which we all are striving for a healthy public and well-being. It has the support of Governor Herbert H. Lehman, all the State's governmental agencies, producers, distributors, business and industry, educators and health and social welfare workers.

Legislative Action

This movement is predicated on the bill introduced in the legis-

ture by Assemblyman Harold C. Ostertag of Attica and Senator William T. Byrne of Loudonville and is the newest function of the rapidly expanding New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets.

The State has appropriated $500,000 to be used in advertising, promotion and publicity and this sum will be returned to the State by a tax of one cent on each one hundred pounds of milk produced and used as fluid milk and cream.

Producers and distributors will share this cost and it will not mean an increase in the retail price of milk. But it will mean a more prosperous dairy industry and greatly enhanced public health, something for which we all are striving for a healthy public and well-being. It has the support of Governor Herbert H. Lehman, all the State's governmental agencies, producers, distributors, business and industry, educators and health and social welfare workers.

All these things can be accomplished with milk, the food that the cow, the foster mother of the human race, gives us for the taking, and other farm products, especially fruits and vegetables. It is a known and proved scientific fact that milk is the best, most satisfying and most healthful food that can be taken by children or adults. It has been truthfully said that unless there is a prosperous agriculture there cannot be a prosperous state. Consequently, the public is being asked to co-operate in this movement because as more milk is used farmers' incomes will increase and the health of our citizens will be improved according to the additional milk which they consume.

Milk is the prime body and mind builder. Milk builds bone and muscle more than any other food. It is both the cheapest and the surest protection from the nutritional deficiencies which open the way to diseases and lifelong injuries to health, happiness and working efficiency.

Budgeting For Milk

In families where the food budget is small at least one-fifth of the budget should be spent for milk and cheese. The expenditure can be adjusted, however, for in cases of families with a large number of children one-third of the food budget should be spent for milk. These estimates are made by leading dietitians.

A quart of milk furnishes approximately one-half of the daily food needs of the average adult in this manner: A full day's amount of calcium, sufficient Vitamin A, sufficient Vitamin C, some Vitamin B, important amounts of Vitamin D, nearly all the phosphorus, one-eighth of the iron, one-third of the protein and one-fifth to one-fourth of the energy, depending upon the individual.

Cool, fresh milk is a palatable food particularly in the summer. In the winter it is needed to throw off colds and other infections.

With all these benefits both to business and the public wrapped up in milk it is no wonder that the State decided to promote consumption of fluid milk and cream?

Northern Rhodesia Has Variety of Wild Beasts

Northern Rhodesia is one of the queerest shaped political subdivisions of Africa, says the National Geographic society. If it were not for a few miles of straight line along its borders, it might be described as the profile of an oval-shaped toy balloon that has been forced out of its normal form by a finger thrust into one side.

The finger in the case is a point of land belonging to the Belgian Congo, which so far indents the colony's northwestern border that it comes within 100 miles of meeting the border of Mozambique, a Portuguese colony, which bars northern Rhodesia from the Indian ocean.

Most of the colony occupies the central plateau of Africa. Only a small area is less than 3,000 feet above sea level, while much of it is above 5,000 feet.

Elephants and giraffes range over nearly the whole colony. Lions, antelopes and zebras are at home in northern Rhodesia; hippopotamuses are found in nearly every river; and hartebeest, waterbucks, rhinoceroses and many animals whose names are unfamiliar to the American layman are natives of the region.

Progress has been slower in northern Rhodesia than in southern Rhodesia. Mineral resources of the former—copper, lead and zinc—have not been developed like those of its southern neighbor. Northern Rhodesia has attracted fewer white men, and the natives have not been apt students of agriculture. In the southeastern portion of the colony, however, large areas are planted in maize, the chief crop, tobacco and cotton. Cattle raising is the occupation of many of the natives as well as whites.

Advice to politicians sending up trial balloons: Keep out of the stratosphere.

The Gemel Ring
The Gemel ring, common in the Middle Ages, was formed of three circles joined with a jeweled clasp, the middle circle quite plain and the upper and lower ones set with precious stones. When a girl was betrothed, the first circle was placed on her hand, and the plain circle given to the parents of the betrothed, and the third circle to the bridegroom. On the wedding day, the Gemel, joined again by a jeweled clasp, was used as the wedding ring.

Fashions By Barbara Bell

An Ideal School Dress For the Young Girl

The fall wardrobe for the well dressed school girl is apt to be full of variety this year for the new designs appearing in the advanced showings of smart fashions give obvious proof of the international source of their inspiration.

The chic simplicity of the dress pictured in the sketch reflects the dignity which has made England famous for its children's clothes. It is smart and useful. Its classic lines combine becomingness, suitability and neatness, the three major points that must have first consideration in assembling a practical wardrobe for daily wear.

Sailor suits of this type come in all sorts of smart, plain materials. Early in the season they will be seen in navy blue cotton pique trimmed with red braid and a tie. Sometimes the collar is white and sometimes of the same material as the dress. The braid, however, must always be bright and contrasting. Cotton poplins and broadcloths are popular, too. They are uncrushable and retain a pressed and well-groomed look longer than many of the lighter weight materials. Later in the season, when a chill comes into the air, this dress will be welcomed in severe serge of a dark blue color. This material conforms to the fixed standards of juvenile smartness all over the western hemisphere, and it holds its title for supremacy through no whim of fashion, but rather through the test to which it has been put by succeeding generations of school children. Flannel is very smart, also. Its characteristic softness, however, argues against it in the matter of well-creased pleats for it requires more than one weekly pressing to keep its appearance at par.

Office Cat
By Jennings

Here rests poor Mrs. Bill Hummers. Her weary heart sprang a bad leak when her daughter of 17 summers snatched some every night for a week.

Married men should shut their eyes when an attractive girl looks at them, declares a novelist. This is far less dangerous than the habit of chasing only one eye.

You can't believe anything you hear.

—No, but you can repeat it.

A broad, general rule is that a man is about as big as the things that make him real mad.

—Do you think you can make a good portrait of my wife?

—My friend, I can make it. I'll make you'll jump every time you see it.

You can't blame the doctor. The more he scares you, the more wonderful he seems when he cures you.

He was an old and not very handsome widower.

Widower—You are the sixth girl to whom I have proposed without avail.

Girl (kindly)—Well, maybe if you wear one when making your seventh proposal you'll have better luck.

A lot of facts are like a lot of people—the less you know about them the happier you are.

Man—I'm to be the guest of honor at a public function.

Friend—Well?

Man—I've never had that experience before. How must I act?

Friend—Look bored. I believe that is the usual custom.

When duty calls it doesn't get nearly as big a hand as the dinner bell.

Man—Do your daughters live at home?

Mrs. Neighbor—My, no! They're not married yet.

Funny how the same people who object to brain trusts in Washington would yell if there were a lack of any in their own businesses.

Wise or otherwise... It doesn't pay to get mixed up in other people's quarrels, unless you are a lawyer.

Many a slow man throws on the speed lever when he starts down hill.

A woman's idea of good medicine is any kind that doesn't taste good.

When a married man wants sympathy he never goes to a bachelor for it.

Give us the man who works for an ideal instead of a high wage.

A lot of men take life as seriously as though they expected to get out of it alive.

The best way to hold on to a husband, girls, is to feed him well and to trust in luck.

Nothing tests a friendship like a private loan.

As a man gets older he's afraid to admit it by leaving a party, so he stays to the bitter end.

"On Time" is a first class recommendation.

One-half of the world manages to get along by inducing the other half to go short.

Honesty is the best policy until after you get out of probation.

Pleasure is the taste for anything else.

One swallow doesn't make a summer, but we've known one to cause a fall.

Saving civilization is going to be easier when civilization is convinced it needs it.

A woman merely points out the way for a man to make a fool of himself; he does the rest.

How often we go home from "a good time" relieved that it's over.

What has become of the old fashioned lover who used to ask a girl's father if he could marry her?

He—When I marry I shall lead a handsome girl and a wonderful cook to the altar.

She—Heavens! That would be bigamy.

Correct this sentence: "Roosevelt has many great problems," said the man, "and I couldn't tell him how to solve any of them."

Reason for the Curfew

The reason for the curfew was that in the early days all the houses were made of wood and thatched straw, says the Montreal Herald. There were no chimneys, and the smoke had to escape through a hole in the center of the roof, and thus fires often occurred. To prevent this happening at night the rule of putting out all fires was strictly enforced. They were usually extinguished by placing over them a large copper hood.

Scientists Use Trees Of Great Southwest As New Drouth Guide

Great Spells of Aridity Occur in a Cycle of 300 Years, Research Shows—Record's Run Back 1700—Years in Pueblo Country.

Tucson, Ariz., Aug. 6 (AP).—Out of the trees of the far southwest and the timbers buried with the extinct Pueblo civilization comes a suggestion today for planning for the great farm belt drouths by predicting them better.

There is a definite record in the tree rings, running back 1,700 years, of great and regular drouths in the mountainous southwest. The scientist who discovered it, Prof. A. E. Douglass of the University of Arizona, says it may be possible to learn whether there is a connection between these southwestern drouths and the farm belt cycles.

"In the last 1,000 years," Prof. Douglass says, "there have been drouth periods of the most conspicuous types about every 300 years in this southwestern region. The last one began in the '70's and ended about 1905.

"Lesser drouths have been apparent about every 100 years and still shorter variations of something like 20 years. They combine together to form a great minimum in the vicinity of 1900, which the modern trees of this region show over a very wide extent of country.

"The present drouth in Arizona is due to the absence of rain and snow last winter. We normally have very little rain in the spring but this last spring we had more than usual in May in June. The water shortage right now is still due to lack of rains during the winter.

"Is this connected with the conditions in the large farm areas of the middle west? In 1902 and 1904, and in fact all of the years from 1899 to 1904 in this southwestern region, with the exception of 1903, there was very scanty precipitation in the winter. What was the condition in the middle west in those years?

"It is by such questions as these that we can decide whether the drouths in the middle west and the southwest are part of the phenomena or of different conditions over our continental area.

"This only illustrates the complexity of the climate. My feeling is that there is a relationship to the sun and that eventually we will find that relationship in different parts of the earth, or for different general conditions, so that long range forecasting may be done.

The great, 300-year dry periods in the southwest three rings were 700, 1000, 1300, 1600 and 1900 A. D. on that basis the next one is not due until 2200.

At The Theatres

Today

Kingston: "Here Comes the Navy." All lovers of sea feeling will thrill to the toes over this monster production that puts the United States Navy through its paces before your eyes, and throws in a lot of humor, thrills and romantic situations just as added attractions. Dramatic, powerful, compelling and somewhat awesome, this naval pageant is the background for a story that stars James Cagney in the role of a tough little kid, whose insubordination and rapid temper keep him in trouble from the opening gun. To add to his troubles, one of the officers is after his girl, and although these two men are friends under the skin, they spend most of their time slugging each other when in a position to do so. All of which all makes for action that is not dainty but fairly brisk. But the real thrill in this show is the Navy itself. It's a treat to see the full force of the United States sea power parading before your eyes. Pat O'Brien, Gloria Stuart and Frank McHugh are in the cast.

Orpheum: "Change of Heart." One of the better movies is this story of four young people who graduate from college, each with a definite idea of what life holds and how to attain it. Each tries to carve out a career, but life somehow seems to frustrate and retard the goal each seeks. The main characters are played with zest and understanding by Janet Gaynor, Charles Farrell, Glady Rogers and James Dunn. It is a picture both interesting and worth seeing.

Broadway: "The Old Fashioned Way." Small time ham actors and their troubles are laughingly depicted in this comedy drama that brings that master comedian, W. C. Fields into the lime light once again. As Mr. McGonigle, head man of the troupe, Fields is given full opportunity to display his talents, and he does right well with himself. The talkie is a laugh riot from start to finish, and the star was never better than in the role of the helpless but histrionical leader of the McGonigle Company. Judith Allen, Baby Leroy, Jack Mulhall and Joe Morrison are in the cast.

Yankees And Detroit Both Win; Giants Down The Phillies 7-4

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

A casual observer of the American League race might wonder how a rival could keep either the Detroit Tigers or New York Yankees from winning the pennant.

Racing along only a game apart these rival clubs have turned in some feats of near-perfect baseball in the past few days against tail-end opposition. Detroit walloped the White Sox 7 to 6 yesterday to climax a six game winning streak and the Yankees gained a 3-1 triumph over the Athletics. Lefty Vernon Gomez gave the A's only one blow. Tony Lazzeri smacked a homer and Lou Gehrig found Alton Benton for his 36th circuit swat of the year.

The league leading Giants staged another spurge in the National League to increase their margin to three games over the Cubs. With Cincinnati lending some aid, while the Giants were downing the Phillies 7 to 4, the Reds held Chicago to an even break in a doubleheader.

Paul Derringer, noted as a "hard luck" hurler, astonished a 30,000 crowd by blanking the Cubs with four hits in the opener to win 4 to 0. Chicago came back with a 4 to 1 triumph.

Pittsburgh staged an uprising that had painful results to another pennant hopeful, the St. Louis Cardinals, and pounded the third-place club around in both games of a doubleheader. A flock of doubles in the seventh and Larry French's relief hitting won the opener 6 to 4, while the Reds continued hitting against four more pitchers to take the second clash 7 to 2.

Cleveland's Indians, third place club of the junior circuit, took a 5-2 decision from the Browns. Washington and Boston split a bargain bill, the Senators taking the opener 2-1 behind Ed Linke's six hit fling and the Sox getting an even break with a 7-3 triumph.

The Boston Braves and Brooklyn also divided games. Boston won the first 7-4 while the Dodgers took advantage of an error by Les Mallon to score three in the seventh and win, 5-3.

Tennis Club Trounces Catskill And Newburgh For A Double Win

Still smarting under the recent defeat at the hands of Poughkeepsie, the Kingston tennis club took to the courts with fire in their eye and soundly trounced the Catskill Club of Catskill by 5-1 on Saturday afternoon, and then went down to Newburgh on Saturday and smacked the Poughkeepsie Club, which had previously defeated Poughkeepsie by a 7-2 score.

At Catskill on Saturday, Stan Hancock was Kingston's lead-off man. He took Holmes in three sets, 4-6, 6-2, 4-6.

Bob Herzog, playing second in the Kingston lineup, defeated Fields in two sets, 6-4, 6-3.

The third singles match was a victory for Catskill. Roy Joy of Kingston found the toughest opposition of the day in Murray and was beaten in three sets, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2.

In the fourth match, Bob Hancock of the Kingston club defeated Poughkeepsie in straight sets 6-4, 6-3.

Jansen Fowler chalked up another win for Kingston by his victory over Sarro, 9-7, 4-3.

Hank Osterhoudt finished up the singles matches by a 6-4, 6-4 win over VanLoan of Catskill. At this point the score stood 5 to 1 in Kingston's favor, thus assuring a victory.

Catskill's doubles teams were all defeated in straight sets.

Joy and R. Hancock took Holmes and Sarro by 6-1, 8-6. Herzog and Fowler defeated Van Loan and Kapen 6-3, 6-1, and S. Hancock and Osterhoudt beat Vard and Field 6-3, 6-3.

Poughkeepsie Club Is Beaten

On Sunday it was the same story. The boys went to Newburgh determined to win, and Stan Hancock's defeat at the hands of Luce reacted on the team as though one had poured gasoline on a fire.

Bob Herzog trounced Schoonmaker in two sets 6-4, 6-4 to even the score, and from this point on Kingston drew steadily ahead.

Tennis Stars Will Play At Longwood

Brookline, Mass., Aug. 4 (AP)—The country's outstanding tennis players—both men and women—gathered at Longwood today to compete for the Longwood bowl and several lesser trophies.

Due to its shift from a mid-July date, this 42nd Longwood bowl tournament will have one of the best fields in years. During the past few seasons the Davis Cup and conflicting western meetings have robbed the Brookline tournament of much of its brilliance.

The start of the team play will be delayed until the arrival of George Lott and Lester Stetten, America's victorious doubles internationalists, who are due in New York from England Tuesday.

Top seeding for the bowl competition went to Wilmer Allison of Austin, Texas, second ranking national singles star and winner of the bowl in 1928. The women's draw was headed by Sarah Palfrey of Brookline, Wightman cup heroine.

Tommy Armour Wins Canadian Open Golf

Toronto, Aug. 4 (AP)—For the sixteenth successive year, Canada's athletic-wielders have permitted the dominions' open golf championship to slip across the border.

Tommy Armour, the "Black Scot" from Chicago, put together rounds of 69-72-71-74 for a 27-hole total of 287 to win the title Saturday and preserve intact the string of United States victories which began in 1919.

Ky Laffoon of Denver finished second with 289 while Harry Cooper, Willie MacFarlane of Tuckahoe, N. Y., and Fay Coleman of Culver City, Cal., tied for third at 292.

Luce and Bennett, 6-3, 6-0.

Herzog and Fowler beat a veteran team by 1-6, 6-4, 6-3, but in the final match, Joy and John Burgevin of Kingston, met their Waterloo in Millard and Eastman, losing by 1-6, 6-4, 6-4.

The Kingston team's record to date is 9 won and 2 lost. The next match is on August 18, with the Edison Club of Schenectady.

N. Rondout Socials Route Polish A. C.

Playing their second game of the season together yesterday afternoon at Hasbrouck Park, the North Rondout Social Club overhauled the Polish A. C. nine from Poughkeepsie by 15-1. The defeat was a bad blow to the Polishers, who had come to avenge a one run setback which they received in the first game.

In the very first frame the North Rondouts started on a rampage. Five runs crossed the platter, and in the fifth four more scampered in. At this point the A. C. put in a new hurler, but to no advantage. Nicola relieved Lowery but was ruthlessly pounded for three more runs in the sixth and two in the seventh. It was in this frame that the lone A. C. run came in.

In the ninth, the Polishers were shut out and the final count was 15-1.

Zulu Black Men Defeat Schryver All Stars Before Record Crowd

Yesterday afternoon at the Fairgrounds, the Schryver All Stars were defeated at the hands of the Zulu Cannibals 9-5. The Zulus were not at their best in the first half of the game, but their terrific appearance of the men from the dark past seemed to unnerve the Schryver team.

The Schryver team, quite evidently last in the league, were checked from their errors. Their errors were also checked. The Zulus were not at their best in the first half of the game, but their terrific appearance of the men from the dark past seemed to unnerve the Schryver team.

Huron Indians Win Over Stone Ridge

At Fairview Park yesterday afternoon, the Huron Indians scalped the Stone Ridge nine by 11-8. With two on in the final frame, Captain Kelder hit a home run to left center. Garrity of Stone Ridge also hit for the circuit in the last inning, but with none on bases.

The Indians played true to form by doing their war dance around the bases. They stole no less than nine bags.

Winkky, on the slab for the Indians, had a hard time finding the plate, due to the strong wind, but managed to hold the Riders to 11 hits, while his teammates took 13 off Misove.

Next Sunday the Tribe will move to Olive Bridge.

El Lagarto Wins At Lake George

Bolton Landing, N. Y., August 6 (AP)—El Lagarto, the rare old Lake George packet that won America's gold cup for the second time Saturday, may be forced out of gold cup racing next year by a change in the race rules requiring bigger and faster boats.

George Reis, her owner, disclosed today that he may be forced to retire his 12-year-old racer because of possible changes that would make her hopelessly out-of-date. The American Power Boat Association is considering admitting boats of 750 cubic inch engine capacity, capable of speeds up to 80 miles an hour. The top speed of the 625 cubic inch racer in the gold cup class now is 68 miles an hour.

Such a change might throw next year's regatta to Hampton Roads, Va. If the class limit remains unchanged and Reis is again able to race, it is virtually assured that the 1935 meet will again be run over a 90-mile course on sparkling Lake George.

The change in A. P. B. A. rules is being considered to meet the competition caused by international rules under which a fleet of Italian boats raced at speeds of 75-80 miles an hour in Florida last winter.

If Lake George does not take the next regatta, the right to hold it passes to the Hampton, Va. Yacht Club, whose entry, Delphine IV, finished second.

Saugerties A. C. Wins Over Athens Laundry

Yesterday afternoon at Saugerties the Athens Laundry nine was taken over by the Saugerties A. C., 12-8.

Ted Freiligh and Benjamin worked for the A. C. while Ott and Van Dutz formed the battery for the Laundry. The opposing mounds-men were touched for 11 hits each.

Freiligh, Ott and Brandon featured the tilt with home runs. The game was the first of a three-game series, the winner to take on the Schryver All Stars for the championship of Ulster and Greene counties.

On Tuesday, August 7, the Saugerties A. C. will take on the Zulu Cannibal Giants. The game will start at 6:15 on the Saugerties diamond.

Irish Blockers Beat Pine Hill Nine, 9-6

Sunday afternoon the Irish Block team from Wilbur journeyed up to Pine Hill, and administered a 9-6 trouncing to the town nine.

Davis and Murphy worked for the Blockers, and Satterlee and Benjamin formed the Pine Hill battery. The fielding of Scully and the hitting of Cragan, both of the Irish Block nine, were the features of the game.

Next Sunday the Blockers will take on the High Falls nine at High Falls.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

Marselles, France—Marcel Thil, 760, outpointed Rinaldi Meroni, 167, Italy (10); Kid Francis, 115, Marselles, outpointed Spider Pladner, 118, (10).

Hiller was sore when that Australian putch yanked him away from a Wagner opera. But it was just as well. His old German god Wotan won't help much now.

THE Spotlight BY GRANTLAND RICE

The Hardest Championship.

What will be the hardest championship to defend in the summer of 1934?

Here are some of the titles and crowns under fire:

1. Women's tennis championship—Helen Jacobs, champion.
2. East-West polo matches—West defeating rulers.
3. Amateur golf championships—George Dunlap, title holder.
4. Men's tennis championship—Fred Perry waiting the purple toga.
5. International yacht races—U. S. defending nation.
6. Baseball—Giants, National League and world series champions.
7. Home run leader—Jimmy Fox, 1934 crown holder.

The roughest road on this list faces the polo Dunlap, the amateur golf champion. With so many local matches to face, Dunlap, one of the fastest fields that ever came to any course, the odds against Dunlap's repeating should be at least 10 to 1.

It will be a heavy scramble to get by any one round, much less a week's play, with 150 surviving headliners slugging away.

Outside of Bobby Jones, no amateur champion has repeated since Jerry Travers put over the double killing in 1912 and 1913.

With 150 starters, most of them along the toughest border, you can understand the barbed wire that must be swept aside.

The Surer Tip.

Helen Jacobs and Fred Perry are two of the surest shots, because tennis runs to form.

Miss Jacobs has been beaten more than once this summer, but she is still one of the two best women tennis players in the game and it will be difficult for any rival to stop her at Forest Hills.

The once chance to break up Fred Perry's march will be to find him slightly stale after a year's play in front of the park—from Forest Hills to Australia—back through Wimbledon to Forest Hills—with one of the greatest records ever made.

Fred Perry is still the boss of the lot with at least an even chance, or better, to pull through. He will have a good month's rest between the Davis Cup final and Forest Hills, and it would be something of an upset to have him led to the guillotine.

The Chance of the Giants.

To hold their world series crown the Giants must first outgallop Cubs and Cardinals in the National League and then keep the fusillade going against Tigers or Yankees.

They are 1 to 2 shots in their own league with such pitchers as Hubbell, Schumacher, Fitzsimmons, Parmelee, Salvo and other helpful home men working in conjunction with the busy bats of Ott, Terry, Moore, etc. They will be even money against Tigers or Yankees, and if there are any odds the same will be upon the Giants who have more pitching strength and better all around balance than either Yankees or Tigers.

The odds are around 3 to 2 against the Giants defending both pennant and world series titles, although they are well equipped in every department to face both assignments, where the job of beating four crack pitchers day by day is no easy one.

Polo Odds.

In the East-West polo matches the western team has slightly better than an even chance to retain the laurel harvested at Chicago a year ago. If Cecil Smith, Rube Williams, Boeseke, Pedley and Roark are near their peak, they will be bad medicine to take.

The question of mounts comes into the argument at this point—a detail that can make a first-class difference.

The eastern team has yet to be selected, but any team headed by Tommy Hitchcock has a good start, and there are several younger stars, such as Mike Phipps, who have come a long way in the last year.

It will be time enough to start guessing the yacht races when the American boat is picked, but the run has been so consistently American in the last few decades that any odds must still lean her way.

Fox and Gehrig.

After a slow start earlier in the year, Jimmy Fox has come along like a runaway horse.

But the slugging Philadelphian still finds Lou Gehrig in hot pursuit with a busy mace.

Both are shooting at Babe Ruth's record of 60 for a season, and this mark is still fairly safe with only seven weeks left.

Fox is favored to win again, but Gehrig is a dangerous competitor—one who should keep the battle steaming on through September.

All in all, the quality of the defending champions is well up to an average, both for teams and individuals.

There are no fluke crowns rocking upon unstable heads. Competition has grown to be so keen that only class can hope to finish in front. The heavy odds against George Dunlap in golf are due to the game itself and the quality of competition. Too many things can happen in a golf match to make any one safe at any time. Dunlap is a fine golfer with an ideal concentrative temperament for match play, but he is out in the middle of the whirlwind.

The next two months will be high spots in sporting history, where any champion who comes safely through will be entitled to more than normal cheering.

ALL AGREE on ONE THING !

Different incomes, different interests—and they live in different worlds. Yet there is ONE thing all three of these Kingston women have in common. They all know how to live smartly, stylishly and well within their means. All three do their shopping in the Daily Freeman.

Cake baking may some day give way to country clubs and sewing circles to social secretaries. Bank accounts may grow and living habits change through the years. But there is ONE habit that none of these women will ever unlearn. It is that habit of thrifty buying—of shopping REGULARLY through the ads in the Daily Freeman.

$1,500 a year or $15,000 a year — smart living means smart budgeting either way. Washing machines or V-16's — the big thing is to get the most and best for your money and still have more money left over.

How to be stylish-though-thrifty is every woman's problem. It is a problem with as many different answers as there are incomes and the Daily Freeman ads give you all of them. The mere fact that this newspaper is read by nearly every shopper in town guarantees that you will get more for your money through the Daily Freeman ads whether your buying allowance is $500 a month or $500 a year.

WHETHER YOUR INCOME IS
$1,500 or $15,000

For if the Daily Freeman reaches almost everybody, the merchant who advertises in it isn't getting his full money's worth unless his story is interesting to almost everybody. And the one and only thing that every shopper everywhere is interested in is Value. Granted that Value is something of a Peas-Porridge-Hot proposition. Granted that some women like it spelled P-R-I-C-E and others spell it Q-U-A-L-I-T-Y. That just means the Daily Freeman advertiser has to give plenty of both in his offerings. Since Quality plus a Reasonable Price MAKE Value, everybody is satisfied!

And speaking of satisfying everybody! The Daily Freeman has been bringing more pleased customers to more merchants and a lower cost of better living to those pleased customers for years. If that isn't keeping all Kingston happy, what is?

You'll Make It Buy More If You Read The Ads Regularly
